

Dr. Jerry Galloway - Bio

Dr. Jerry Galloway performs a wide variety of the greatest hits, varied musical styles and artists from a long background performing as a drummer and vocalist for 50 years earning awards and acclaim from Detroit to Houston and from Denver to the East Coast.

After a bachelor's degree in Logic with a minor in applied music and then law school, Jerry earned his Doctorate in Instructional Technology from the University of Houston with some of the earliest work in technology for teachers and followed with 3 decades as a university professor of education. He is a member of MENSA, author, public speaker, stage actor, and pilot. As a 5th degree black belt, Master Galloway operated his own martial arts academy and competing for over 25 years earning 5 national medals. As an astronomer, he operates his own observatory and serves as the Astronomy Lecturer for Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines.

Jerry has actually been on stage in 7 different decades. He has performed with everything from 40's big bands, country, classic rock and oldies to swing, jazz, and rhythm and blues. When not on stage drumming, Jerry can be found singing nightly at restaurants and clubs, event centers, playing with the 25 SOUTH Band, or singing with his solo show featuring the greatest in popular music from the past.

www.gallowaysings.com